Competition Law

Ritwik Bhattacharya is a Partner in the Firm's Competition Law Practice with more than 11 years of experience in this field. He represents clients across a spectrum of sectors, including digital platforms, healthcare, automobiles, electronic payments, real estate, broadcasting, railways, airlines, film exhibition, investment funds, fast moving consumer goods and electrical automation. He has been involved in several big-ticket merger control and enforcement matters.

On the merger control front, he has been involved in some of the most complex cases before the CCI, including: (i) L&T/Schneider (the first case where the CCI accepted purely behavioural remedies in a phase II investigation); (ii) ZF/WABCO (the first case where parties successfully approached the High Court to challenge certain aspects relating to divestment terms); (iii) PVR/DT (the first case where the CCI accepted hybrid remedies); (iv) Singapore Airlines / Vistara / Air India (mega transaction approved subject to behavioural remedies); (v) Facebook/Reliance Jio; (vi) Siemens Healthineers/Varian; (vii) Suzuki/Toyota; (viii) HP/Samsung; (ix) Ctrip/MMT; and (x) Piramal/Annapurna, amongst others.

On the enforcement front, Ritwik has been involved in many cutting-edge cases before the CCI, and he specialises in enforcement action in the big-tech space. His cases include: (i) numerous successful complaints against Google's Play Store policies; (ii) the investigation against Google's Android licensing policies; (iii) successfully defending several abuse of dominance cases against PVR INOX; (iv) abuse of dominance cases against DLF, Verifone, T-Series; and (iv) several cartel cases involving auto-parts companies, railways companies and others.

Ritwik has consistently featured in the WWL: Competition Future Leaders List, in 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024, where he has been described as “an outstanding professional”, known for “the depth of his knowledge and experience”.

He has co-authored several competition law publications. He also worked closely with the CCI during the Government's review of amendments required to the law. Ritwik has also delivered guest lectures in various law institutions, including Jindal Law University and ILS Law College, Pune.

Ritwik obtained his B Comm. LLB (Hons.) degree from Gujarat National Law University in 2013.
